

9th European Transnasal Endoscopy Training Workshop

Online transmission of live cases from the Royal Free Hospital, London, with hands-on training at King's College Hospital, London
Thursday 24th September 2020

Course co-directors:

Dr Edward J Despott & Dr Simon Panter

Hands on training

co-directors:

Dr Bu H. Hayee

Dr Shraddha Gulati

Faculty:

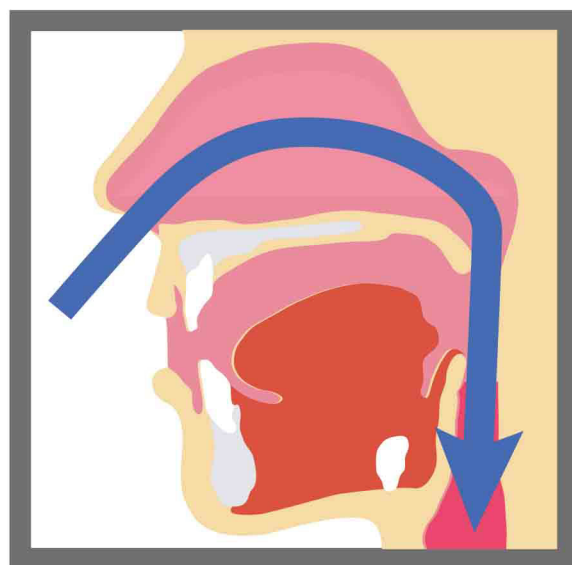

Dr Alberto Murino

Miss Nashreen Oozeer

Mr Michael Grimes

Dr Ralph Greaves

Dr Sergio Coda

Royal Free London
NHS Foundation Trust

South Tyneside and Sunderland
NHS Foundation Trust

King's College Hospital
NHS Foundation Trust

Kingston Hospital
NHS Foundation Trust

Barking, Havering and Redbridge
NHS Trust

9th European Transnasal Endoscopy Training Workshop 2020 – Programme

Thursday 24th September 2020

10.00	Registration & Coffee (for hands-on training attendees)
10.30	Introduction	Dr Edward J Despott, Dr Simon Panter, Dr Bu Hayee & Dr Shraddha Gulati
10.45	Why transnasal endoscopy? The evidence base	Dr Edward J Despott
11.15	Specific disadvantages/potential pitfalls/biopsy size/contraindications	Dr Alberto Murino
11.35	Nasal anatomy and potential pathology of the nasopharynx and larynx	Miss Nashreen Oozeer
11.50	Managing ENT complications	Miss Nashreen Oozeer
12.05	Lunch
12.50	Pre-procedure patient preparation	Dr Simon Panter
13.05	"Tips and tricks"	Dr Simon Panter
13.20	Live case transmission	Dr Edward J. Despott & Dr Alberto Murino
14.20	Hands-on practice with nasopharynx and upper GI tract models (Bill Whimster Suite, Simulation and Interactive Learning Centre, Weston Education Centre, King's College Hospital)	Mr Michael Grimes, Dr Shraddha Gulati, Dr Bu Hayee, Dr Ralph Greavs, Dr Sergio Coda
15.10–15.30	Summary, feedback and finish	Dr Edward J Despott, Dr Simon Panter, Dr Bu Hayee & Dr Shraddha Gulati

Aquilant
A HCA Group Company

With kind support from Fujifilm & Aquilant

FUJIFILM

INTERNATIONAL AEM

LONDON

KING'S LIVE

PROMOTING EXCELLENCE IN INTERVENTIONAL ENDOSCOPY